Criteria/Guidelines

Introduction

The Uniting Church in Australia Property Trust (Victoria) is trustee of to the 'Thanksgiving Scholarship Fund for Women Workers' and the 'Campbell Todd Commemoration Bursaries'. The Thanksgiving Scholarship Fund for Women Workers supports women who take tertiary or post-graduate studies who are specifically continuing, or seeking, to serve or work for the church in either a paid or unpaid capacity. The application must relate to service or work which has the explicit support or oversight of a Council of The Uniting Church in Australia. The Campbell Todd Bursaries are also for women studying to serve in ministry of the church.

Eligibility

Women who take tertiary or post-graduate studies who are specifically continuing, or seeking, to serve or work for the church in either a paid or unpaid capacity.

Conditions

- bursaries available to women who wish to undertake higher studies beyond Year 12 or equivalent;
- available to women who are seeking to serve or work for the church in either a paid or unpaid capacity;
- such work or service to have explicit oversight or support of a Council or Agency of The Uniting Church in Australia. This includes course accreditation that is recognised by the church or other institutions;
- details are required for sourcing other funding for the applicant to complete the course;
- the value of the bursary can be dependent on the number of applications received.
