

RE:GENERATIONS 2017

Exploring intergenerational ministry and mission

Murrumbeena 25 August

Frankston 26 August

If an intergenerational approach is the key to effective ministry with people of all ages, what does it look like in practice? How can it be implemented by local congregations? What can stay the same and what needs to be changed?

Re:Generations - Exploring intergenerational ministry and mission is a unique opportunity to engage with these questions and more.

Facilitated by Chris Barnett from the Centre for Theology & Ministry, the day will include three engaging, participatory and practical core sessions.

Come for the whole day or simply select the session/s that are of most interest to you.

- 10:30am Intergenerational ministry - worship, mission and more
- 12:30pm Messy mission - learning from Messy Church as an intergenerational model
- 2:30pm Here to Stay – a framework for nurturing lifelong discipleship

Each session will run for 90 minutes and there will be time to browse resources and connect with others inbetween sessions. Register for any one session and participate in as many of the others as you like for FREE.
