Guidelines for UCA Under-35 Theological Scholarships:

1. There will be ten Under-35 Scholarships awarded each calendar year to people affiliated with a UCA congregation or faith community;
2. Scholarships are open to applicants under the age of 35 on 1 January of each year;
3. Once awarded the Under-35 Scholarships will subsidise 50% of the total fees of Diploma of Theology or a Graduation Diploma through Pilgrim Theological College and awarded by the University of Divinity (you will be invoiced for the amount owing from the University of Divinity);
4. the Scholarship will continue until the award is completed on the basis that satisfactory academic progress is made (normally Pass grade);
5. The Scholarships are only available for Units studied at Pilgrim Theological College (any Units taken outside Pilgrim Theological College must be paid for in full);
6. This Application Form must be accompanied by two written references from members of his/her UCA congregation or faith community including the following information:
 - the referee needs to attest that that the Applicant is capable of and would benefit from theological study;
 - the length of time the referee has known the Applicant;
 - full contact details of referee;
 - name of congregation or faith community.
