WHAT MAKES UCA LEADERSHIP DISTINCT

11-13 July 2017

UNITING CHURCH IN AUSTRALIA

SYNOD OF VICTORIA AND TASMANIA

The Uniting Church recognises the organic and evolving nature of leadership in contexts of challenge and times of change. Participation in this Living Leadership: What Makes UCA Leadership Distinct intensive will build your capacity, insight and resilience for leadership in your context.

Whilst noting that many aspects of leadership are shared across organisations, Living Leadership: What Makes UCA Leadership Distinct focuses specifically on leadership within the Uniting Church context. Drawing on the theology, history and life of the Uniting Church in Australia, as well as the Basis of Union, areas to be explored include

- Key UCA foundations
- Ethical leadership and teaching
- An inter-cultural and inter-generational church
- Shared leadership in ministry, mission and discipleship
- Inter-related nature of UCA and the roles of each UCA council
- Communal discernment, consensus processes, UCA practices and processes

Your participation in the Living Leadership: What Makes UCA Leadership Distinct intensive will enable you to...

- expand your skills for
 - enhance your capacity for
 - grow in your understanding of
- ... effective leadership in the Uniting Church context.

Living Leadership: What Makes UCA Leadership Distinct is specifically offered for:

- Elders/Church Council members, chairpersons and secretaries, pastors and ministers;
- Regional leaders including presbytery members, officers and ministers;
- Leaders and members of local teams, groups and committees;
- Leaders from culturally and linguistically diverse communities;
- Active leaders in local rural/regional communities;
- Ministry candidates and emerging lay leaders;
- Anyone interested in learning more about the Uniting Church leadership model.

Facilitated by Rev Dr Jenny Byrnes and others from the Centre for Theology & Ministry staff team, this is an opportunity to sharpen your skills as an effective leader in the Uniting Church. Please register now to join us at this valuable professional development opportunity!

LIVING LEADERSHIP EVENT TYPES

The Living Leadership program comprises two distinct event types:

CORE – providing a foundation for on-going learning, CORE covers DiSC, teams & leadership styles; culture, context and conflict; strategic change; and much more. CORE offerings are usually provided in an intensive format for individuals and teams.

FOCUS – addressing key issues around church governance and leadership in an inter-conciliar context, FOCUS offerings are designed especially for those who are part of Uniting Church congregational or regional leadership teams or councils.
