

A People of God on the Way

15 October 2017

A Public Forum

Where is the Uniting Church heading, and how will we find our way? Marking the 40th anniversary of its inauguration, join two key leaders for an afternoon forum to explore the current and future shape of the Uniting Church in Australia.

Deidre Palmer, President-Elect of the national Assembly will explore the current and future shape of the Uniting Church. Geoff Thompson, systematic theology teacher at Pilgrim Theological College, will address the Basis of Union as our continuing theological compass.

Speakers:

Dr Deidre Palmer,
 President-Elect of the Uniting Church Assembly

Rev Dr Geoff Thompson,
 Systematic Theology teacher at Pilgrim Theological College

Host: Dr Jill Tabart,
 Former President of the Uniting Church, Chair of the Board of the CTM
