

TWO GREAT EVENTS FOR GIPPSLAND

RE:GENERATIONS 2017

Exploring intergenerational ministry and mission

Warragul Friday 1 September

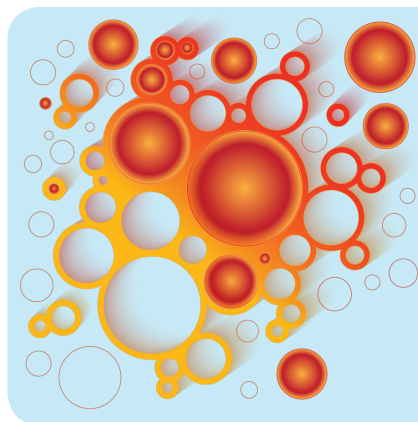

If an intergenerational approach is the key to effective ministry with people of all ages, what does it look like in practice? How can it be implemented by local congregations? What can stay the same and what needs to be changed?

Re:Generations - Exploring intergenerational ministry and mission is a unique opportunity to engage with these questions and more.

Facilitated by Chris Barnett from the Centre for Theology & Ministry, the day will include multiple engaging, participatory and practical sessions...

- Intergenerational ministry - worship, mission and more
- Messy mission - learning from Messy Church as an intergenerational model
- Here to Stay - a framework for nurturing lifelong discipleship

...and time to browse resources and connect with others!

Messy Church & Mission

Sale Saturday 2 September

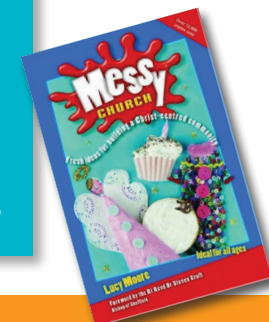

With more and more churches across Gippsland embracing Messy Church, Messy Church & Mission provides the opportunity to find out more about Messy Church and the missional dimension it offers...

What is Messy Church?
Who is Messy Church for?

Is it really messy?
Is it really church?
Does it actually connect with people of all ages?

What resources are available to help us?
What can we learn from Messy Church as a model?

For ministers, pastors, church leaders, volunteers and anyone interested in intentionally connecting the children and families of their local community into a multi-age discipleship community, Messy Church & Mission will answer these questions and more!
